Message from the District Representative

Brothers of the Mighty Second District,

To God be the glory! It is with great honor and humility that I address you during this issuance of the Omegan. A lot has transpired since our 69th District Conference in Rye Brook, NY. The Second District has exceeded the standard on many levels during the summer months. We lost our 33rd Grand Basileus, Dr. Moses C. Norman, Sr. and witnessed the presentation of the Omega Lifetime Achievement Award to Minister Louis Farrakhan on August 26, 2017. Our District Leadership Team continues to be difference makers and move our District and Fraternity forward.

During this period we executed an exceptional District Re-organization Meeting and Summer Workshop along with rolling out our 2nd District Strategic Plan to the membership to calibrate our azimuth for the District and the Brotherhood. Our District leadership team is preparing the 2nd District for a major leadership role as we descend upon the International Undergraduate Summit in Atlanta and the 81st Grand Conclave, in New Orleans, Louisiana. We endorsed Brother Kenneth E. Rodgers as our candidate for 1st Vice Grand Basileus during our District Conference. During the 2017 Moses C. Norman, Sr. Leadership Conference in Cincinnati, Ohio, Omicron Chi Chapter received the Large Chapter of the Year Award for Achievement Week, and Psi Iota Chapter received the Social Action Small Chapter of the Year Award. Additionally, the 2nd District received the following International Scholar Awards for 2017: District Scholar of the Year: Justin Alvarez; Founder's Memorial Award: Marquise Findley-Smith; Herman Dreer Award: Tremayne McKennith; H. Carl Moultrie Legal Award: Mario Holloway; W. Montague Cobb Medical Award: Kevin Purcell. Also, our 2nd District Talent Hunt candidate participated in the International Talent Hunt demonstration.

During this period, we also executed an outstanding James S. Avery Shirtsleeve Conference, hosted by Theta Mu Mu Chapter, in Baltimore, Maryland. We started with a Town Hall Meeting at Coppin State University then the conference presented panels on Violence Prevention, Brother You're On My Mind/Mental Health issues, Reclamation and Chapter Officer training. Our Undergraduate Summit was also held at Towson State University by our Undergraduate Council. The Brothers from the 2nd District served as Marshals with the 3rd District during the Ministers March for Justice, in Washington, DC, on Monday, 28 August, 2017.

Our District, Corridors, and Chapters rallied to provide funding and non-perishable assistance to those communities affected by Hurricanes Harvey, Irma and Maria. Several locations were devastated by flood waters from these hurricanes including Texas, Florida, Puerto Rico, St Thomas and the US Virgin Islands. The estimated damage to these communities was well over 175 billion dollars. Our energy is focused on taking care of our senior brothers, families, and communities while we continue to address the Social Injustice Issues we face.

Brothers, excellence is the standard in which we execute our business in uplifting our Communities, even in Social Media. We must be discrete in our actions and be sensitive to the fact cameras and social media surround us and we must not project Omega in a negative light to the world. I am humbled and honored to serve the 2nd District and this great organization.

Long live the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the 2nd District,

Brother Sherman L. Charles
35th District Representative, Second District

*Message from theDirector of Public Relations*Brothers of the Second District,

Our new cover theme concentrates on our Friendship with our Brothers. In this edition, the Omega Man on the Move featured on the cover is Brother Demaune Millard, the Interim CEO of The Family League of Baltimore. In this installment of the Physicians Corner, Dr. Jedan Phillips focuses on Kidney Disease. The article highlights Risk Factors, Symptoms and Preventative Steps to minimize the risk of developing kidney disease. Also, please view the thoughtful and insightful essays in the Opinion Editorial Section.

Finally, as Brothers, we know who and what Omega Psi Phi Fraternity means to us, but can you give a clear definition of Omega to a member of the public at large? Let's be concise and consistent with our message, memorize and ask all Brothers commit to memory the Omega Brand Statement contained on pg. 20. Authored by Brother Vroman Wright, PhD. and vetted at the 2008 Shirtsleeve Conference, answering the question "What is Omega Psi Phi?" with the Omega Brand Statement will give a clear, concise and consistent definition of Omega for the public at large.

Keep Up the Great Works of Omega!

Employing Strategies to Uplift People of Color in Baltimore

Baltimore, MD September 2017. The Brothers of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc. Theta Mu Mu Chapter partnered with Pi Omega Chapter to host a Town Hall Meeting held at Coppin State College Science and Technology Building, discussing Employment Strategies and other issues facing the residents of Baltimore. Faculty, staff, students, parents, alumni, and Baltimore residents came together for a challenging conversation among stakeholders. Dr. Maya Rockey-moor Cummings from the Center for Global Policy Solutions, facilitated and led the discussion sparked by an outcry for resources to address Baltimore's homicide rates, poverty, lack of leadership in the community, and education gaps in the black community. States Attorney Marilyn Mosby, Patrol Division Chief Brother Osborne Robinson, Brother Edward Hill, and Brother Dr. Lester Spence sat on the panel to give insight on issues and answers questions from concerned community members. Maryland's criminal justice system has received a significant amount of attention since the unrest in Baltimore following the death of Freddie Gray last April. There are a reported 109,000 or more individuals under the supervision of the adult correctional system throughout Maryland, according to the most recent Bureau of Justice Statistics.

Brother Lester Spence, PhD. Receives $50,000 Johns Hopkins University Provost Award

Baltimore, MD. June 2017. Johns Hopkins University announced it's giving away tens of thousands of dollars in "Excellence in Diversity" prizes to faculty members.

Lester Spence, a Political Science and Africana Studies Professor at Johns Hopkins, will receive a $50,000 Provost's Prize for Faculty Excellence in Diversity, according to a post on the university's website.

"Lester Spence, a leading scholar of political science, has long taken his scholarship—so important in recognizing inequality across diverse populations—outside the walls of the university," said Christopher Celenza, John Hopkins' vice provost for faculty affairs. "He has helped open Hopkins to the city of Baltimore in a way that is admirable, serving as a challenge to all of us to do better."

Spence maintains an active Twitter presence where he comments on political and social issues, including President Donald Trump:

Four features of the "aspirational fascism" that characterizes the Trump administration...#trumpteachin

1. The endless repetition of lies. Designed to give aggrieved constituencies new sources they can blame for their condition. #trumpteachin

2. Shockwave politics. They rapidly propose and institute new regressive initiatives in order to shock and awe opposition. #trumpteachin

3. Neofascist rhetorical strategy. Further consolidates the anger of his constituencies against perceived enemies. #trumpteachin

4. The Reichstag temptation. Elites have historically used attacks (real and imagined) to push forth horrific policies. #trumpteachin

Celenza also praised Tilak Ratnanather, a biomedical engineering research professor who will receive $10,000 as a runner-up.

Spence and Ratnanather, along with ten other professors, a student group and a campus exhibit, will receive rewards at John Hopkins' Diversity Recognition Awards Ceremony, hosted by the school's Diversity Leadership Council.

He is a board-certified General Surgeon who completed his residency in General Surgery at St. Barnabas Hospital and Regional Trauma Center in Bronx, NY, in 2004 and a fellowship in Hand Surgery at Lincoln Medical and Mental Health Center in the Bronx in 2005. A 1993 initiate of Tau Iota Chapter, Hartford, CT, Bro. Dr. Richardson stated "we have already begun the process to move forward in the pursuit of Level III Trauma Center designation. We plan to apply for review by the American College of Surgeons (ACS) later this year in hopes that the hospital will be designated a Level III Trauma Center by the ACS and the state Department of Health within two years."

He went on to say, "we believe that this designation will serve to recognize current emergency department practices for dealing with critically ill and injured patients and the high level of complex care we provide every day, in all of our care settings."

Fred has shown a true commitment to the overall student-athlete experience and he provides much needed stability for our program moving forward."

"I am confident that under Coach Farrier's leadership our young men will make us all proud, in the classroom, community and on the field."

Since taking over as interim coach in February, Farrier has guided the Bears to a 3-8 overall record and a 3-5 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference mark. The Bears completed the season with four student-athletes recognized to the All-MEAC Team and 15 selected to the MEAC's All-Academic Team.

There is a lot of work to do and I am confident we can accomplish our goals."

"Morgan State football has a bright future and I am excited to be a part of it to contribute to the legacy of those that have come before me and those that will continue to walk this beautiful campus long after my time here is completed."

Farrier originally joined the Bears in 2014 as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. He oversaw the development of quarterback Moses Skillon, who was the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference's No. 5 leading passer in 2015.

In 2014, Skillon passed for 1,392 and 11 touchdowns and led the Bears to its first MEAC championship in 35 years and its first ever FCS playoff appearance.

Farrier, a 17-year veteran of college football coaching ranks, joined the Bears after spending a pair of seasons as the passing game coordinator at RPI (Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute). Fatherhood and Mentoring Committee Corner

Brother Ron Osborne-Williams, ZX's Fatherhood and Mentoring Chair and Brothers from two local Chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Zeta Chi, Fort Lauderdale, and Eta Nu, Pompano Beach, Florida teamed together with Mothers Healthy Babies Coalition of Broward County, Inc.

Fort Lauderdale, FL. May 17, 2017. 2nd District, Chairman visited the 7th District, Fatherhood Mentoring Program located in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. Brother Ron Osborne-Williams, ZX's Fatherhood and Mentoring Chair and Family Therapist at Juliana Gerena Associates in Coral Springs, Florida, shared the eight-year partnership between Mothers Healthy Babies Coalition of Broward County, Inc. and two local Chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. The two chapters Zeta Chi, Fort Lauderdale, and Eta Nu, Pompano Beach, Florida teamed together where several Omega men from both chapters are committed to conduct 12 weekly group sessions every six months in two Broward County locations: Joseph C. Carter Park in the city of Fort Lauderdale and OB Johnson Park/Hepburn Center in the city of Hallandale Beach.

This Fatherhood Session #8 focused on Safe Sleep where approximately 24 men attended to receive information from a Community presenter, Racheal Alexander. The Safe Sleep campaign started in 1994 to teach people about reducing the risk of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome, better known as SIDS. The Chapter believed that this was an important session aimed at helping men to learn about the importance of their role as parents. The presenter shared current statistics about the high number of infant deaths in Broward County Community over a two-year period. Dads must be included in the dialogue about safe sleep because a growing number of dads are staying home to care for babies.

The men learned two critical facts about SIDS being the leading cause of death in babies one month to one year of age. However, SIDS is not the cause of every baby death there are other sleep-related infant deaths that are preventable, such as suffocation. The presentation was informative and easy to understand and provided helpful strategies to Fathers to assist mothers with caring for small children.

Safe Sleep ABC Strategies and message:

- Always place babies to sleep on their backs, for naps and at night.
 - Use a firm sleep surface, such as a mattress in a safety-approved* crib, bassinet, or portable play yard, with NO soft or loose bedding, crib bumpers, or toys.
 - No Sleeping in bed with parents. Share a room instead of sharing a bed.
- The key message to the fathers was that "babies are safest when everyone in the household knows on how to care for them."

In addition to the Safe Sleep presentation, the fathers were provided with employment information opportunities, free baby cribs to take home, and information on LifeNet4Families to provide service to the hungry and homeless of Broward County. Dads were encouraged to bring another Father by providing an incentive gifts to increase commitment and attendance. The session concluded with announcements, prayer and chant "I Am a Championship Father."

Quote from Broward County Fatherhood Program: my father gave me the greatest gift anyone could give another person, he believed in me!

Key Message:

Chapters are highly encouraged to "partner" with their local township's established social service programs that share a common interest to help parents, especially men to "help their children grow into healthy young adults" – resulting in stronger families across the 2nd District. To learn more about Fatherhood Partnerships please do not hesitate to contact FMP Chair.

Physicians' Corner - The Quite Problem - Kidney Disease in the African American Population

Brother Dr. Jedan Phillips

African Americans have an increased risk of developing chronic kidney disease that can lead to dialysis and/ or kidney transplant. African Americans are 3 times more likely to develop kidney disease when compared to whites. African Americans make up approximately 12 % of the population in the United States but make up 30 % of persons with kidney failure. When compared to other ethnic groups, African Americans have higher rates of diabetes and hypertension, which are the 2 leading causes of kidney disease. Diabetes and hypertension account for 70% of cases of kidney failure in African Americans. Almost one in 3 African Americans have hypertension. African American men between the age of 22 - 44 are 20 times more likely to develop kidney disease due to hypertension than Caucasian males in same age group. African Americans are twice as likely to develop diabetes in comparison to our Caucasian counterparts. Overall approximately 20 million have kidney disease in the United States. The annual cost of treating kidney disease in the United States is about 20 billion dollars annually.

The kidneys are responsible for filtering toxins in the blood. It is our bodies' filtration system. Most are not aware of the kidneys unless they are not functioning properly.

Symptoms of kidney disease include:

- *Swelling around eyes / ankles
- *Lower back pain
- *Burning with urination
- *Dark colored urine
- *Frequent urination especially at night
- *High blood pressure
- *Fatigue
- *Most initially present with NO symptoms

Risk Factors for kidney disease in African Americans include:

- *Diabetes
- *Elevated blood pressure
- *Family History of kidney disease
- *Low socioeconomic status
- *Poor access to medical care

Now what can we do to improve our risks of developing kidney disease? Firstly, is to take a preventive approach with our health care. Because of the high incidence of being asymptomatic when kidney disease is first diagnosed, it is very important for us to regularly visit the doctor. This means going to the doctor for your regular physical exams and not waiting until you are feeling bad. This is also relevant to diabetes and hypertension (leading causes of kidney disease) which in many cases can present without symptoms. Approximately 45% of African American men with diagnosed kidney disease, received late referrals to see the kidney specialist (nephrology) which could be due to not going to doctor for regular visits or related to lack of access to appropriate medical care. Also it is important to be aware of your family medical history because that information can be very helpful in your medical care.

Other preventive steps that can be taken include:

- *Awareness of risk factors for hypertension and diabetes
- *Regular visits to your primary care physician
- *Low fat / low salt diet (DASH Diet)
- *body weight control
- *Regular exercise (at least 150 minutes weekly)
- *Control of diabetes and hypertension
- *Decrease smoking / smoking cessation

This again stresses the importance for us to take a preventative approach to our medical care and not take a reactionary approach. Let us all make sure we are up to date with our regularly scheduled Doctor visits.

2nd District Names Brother Larry Pough 2nd District District Talent Hunt Chair Emeritus

*Brother Larry Pough
Second District
Talent Hunt Chairman Emeritus*

Rye, NY. May 2017 Brother Larry Pough, a member of Theta Omicron Chapter in Rochester NY was recommended for and unanimously voted to the position of 2nd District Talent Hunt Chairman Emeritus. Bro. Pough, the current International Talent Hunt Committee Chairman and president of the newly created International Talent Hunt Foundation is a 47-year Omega man.

Bro. Pough served as the chairman of Theta Omicron Chapter Talent Hunt for 5 years. During that time, he implemented the use of performance halls as a venue for his chapter's Talent Hunt programs and the soliciting of sponsors to increase the cash awards provided to the students. Bro. Pough served as an assistant to the District Talent Hunt Chairman, Bro. Calvin Baxter.

In 1987 Bro. Pough was appointed to the position of 2nd District Talent Hunt Chairman by D.R. Richard Johnson (Omega Chapter). He served as the 2nd District Talent Hunt Chairman for 18 years under the administrations of 9 different District Representatives.

Under Bro. Pough's leadership, the number of students participating in the 2nd District Talent Hunt program experienced a significant growth. The instrumental and vocal categories were changed to allow classical and contemporary awards in each category, the cash awards were increased in each category, the performance venue was upgraded to performance halls (performing arts schools' auditoriums) and the guidelines were made available on the district website to allow continuity across the district. Bro. Pough also implemented the use of parental release and consent form which allowed the fraternity to video tape the district Talent Hunt performers. The forms also provided insurance information in case of a medical emergency. Several of the guidelines created in the 2nd District were utilized to help standardize the guidelines currently provided by the International Talent Hunt Committee.

Congratulations are extended to Bro. Pough. Thank you for your service to our youth, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the Second District.

You'll Never Know "When We'll Say Our Last Goodbye".

Philadelphia, Pa. September 2017. Six brothers, thoroughly immersed in the true Omega spirit, visited Brother James H. Robinson, a seasoned brother initiated in 1949 through Beta Chapter at Lincoln University. Brother Robinson had been away from the fraternity for some time and had very little contact with the brothers. The visit took place at Bro. Robinson's home on a Sunday afternoon in the Germantown section of Philadelphia.

Previously, I received a phone call from my friend, Faith who visited Bro. Robinson. She discovered he is a member of our beloved fraternity and began to inquire about Bro. Robinson's fraternal life. Faith mentioned "I have a friend in New Jersey who is a fraternity brother of yours." Faith asked Bro. Robinson if he was "still in touch with his brothers?" Brother Robinson said "no" and went on to explain that most of the brothers, like himself, "were experiencing various health issues and, unfortunately, some have passed on." Faith then asked, "Have you seen any of your younger brothers?" Brother Robinson said "no, I haven't seen any of my younger brothers in years." Faith then asked, "Would you like to meet some?" Brother Robinson said, "I would be honored to meet some of my younger brothers." Imagine that? Initiated in 1949, and says he would be honored to meet us. The honor would be truly ours.

After texting dozens of brothers, our plan was to flood Bro. Robinson's home with purple and gold and it turned out to be a major blessing. Brother Robinson was presented with a few gifts, we sang a few Omega songs and he even played his piano. Before we left, Bro. Robinson said "I want the Ques to have my piano." Brother Robinson's son was taking him to Texas on Thursday to live with him. Brother James H. Robinson, 1949 Beta, entered Omega Chapter that Wednesday, the day before his son was slated to take him south, and just three days after our visit. You'll never know "When we'll say our last goodbye." Rest in peace good brother.

2nd District Violence Prevention & Membership Selection Committees Co-Host Roundtable Discussion

Second District Counselor, Bro. Bertrand Harry, Esq., facilitating the Roundtable Discussion

Philadelphia, PA, August 26, 2017 – The Violence Prevention Committee (VPC), chaired by Bro. Gordon Everett (ME '75, Winston-Salem State University) partnered with the Membership Selection Committee (MSC), chaired by Bros. Robert Manning (MΩ '78, Philadelphia, PA) and Harrison Potts (ΩΔ '80, Westchester State College) to host a discussion roundtable on violence. The forum offered an opportunity for select 2nd District Brothers to engage in open and frank discussion about violence and its impact on the Fraternity. Particular emphasis was on violence associated with membership selection. Bro. Everett engaged committee members during the 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. meeting to gather input to help solidify the roundtable concept that was also jointly briefed to the Similarly, Bros. Manning and Potts engaged their committee members to gather input. Ultimately, the roundtable date was set with the support of the Brothers of Mu Omega Chapter in Philadelphia, PA, who volunteered to host the event at their fraternity house.

Bro. Everett invited both the VPC members and the MSC members to invite Brothers who had particularly strong opinions, either way, as it related to membership selection and “pledging” versus “intake”. An anonymous survey was offered ahead of the roundtable to enable Brothers to respond to questions intended to help frame the roundtable discussions that occurred. The conditions set and agreed to by all attending the roundtable included honest expressions in a judgement-free zone without fear of being ostracized or penalized for the information shared. To help offer a capable and respected guide separate from the VPC and MSC, District Counselor Bro. Bertrand Harry (ΔΦ '92, Kansas City, KS) was invited to serve as the facilitator. Bro. Harry's role was conditioned upon him agreeing to “take his District Counselor hat off” to help encourage Brothers to speak openly and frankly.

In attendance were 30 Brothers with representation from Corridors 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. The MSC chairmen and host chapter, Mu Omega, provided refreshments and food for breakfast and lunch during the roundtable where every Brother offered discussion with opinion and even some with recommendations. Bro. Everett shared his charge from the District Representative, Bro. Sherman Charles (PΘ '78, Prairie View A&M University), allowing Brothers to offer recommendations for consideration that could frame two actionable items. The two actions that resulted included: 1.) bringing back a focus on the District Undergraduate Summit to address violence prevention on campuses, and 2.) engaging more brothers in this discussion at the upcoming Shirtsleeve Conference.

The result of the initial roundtable proved to be a success in meeting the objective for attracting a variety of Brothers with a range of opinions and thoughts that were shared opening and frankly without fear of being ostracized or penalized. There was a rather conspicuous absence of Undergraduate Brothers in attendance even though invitations were extended. The Brothers in attendance determined that absence to be a key issue area that needs address for future roundtables to help ensure the most effective outcomes amongst all Brothers.

Delta Upsilon's Late Honorable Brother Lawson R. McElroy Honored with Monumental Bench and Plaque at Rider University

Lawrenceville, NJ, June 6, 2017. The Late Honorable Brother Lawson R. McElroy was recognized and honored at Rider University's Reunion on Saturday, June 10, 2017 with a formal dedication of a Cleveland flowering pear tree, in ground cemented plaque and a bench that will be permanently enshrined on the campus. This is the very first permanent marker of any kind at a NJ College/University campus to honor a member of Omega Psi Phi.

Brother McElroy, fondly known as "Mac or Lawson," was a former Assistant Director of Financial Aid and Admissions at Rider University where he recruited, mentored, and provided aid to hundreds of Rider students, many of whom went on to become successful doctors, lawyers, corporate heads, politicians, educators, highly honored military, police administrators, and entrepreneurs throughout the country.

In recognition of Brother McElroy's service at Rider, in 2006, a small group of alumni and friends spearheaded by Brother Kevin Derricotte, (Rider Alumni, 1979 and) began formulating a strategy to create an endowment in Brother McElroy's name. Starting in 2007, more than 25 students have received scholarships in excess of $30,000. The permanent endowed scholarship is now worth more than $80,000.

The dedication and recognition program at Rider was just the next step in honoring Brother McElroy's legacy and recognition of his work in assisting individuals in reaching their life goals. "Unconditionally, Mac gave and loved; then he gave and loved some more," said Brother Derricotte.

"Mac was a mentor, a friend, and a brother to me and my wife Wanda" said Brother Terry Rogers, Rider Alumni, 1979. "Since meeting him at Rider over 40 years ago, Lawson was a part of every significant event in our lives, so to us, it is only fitting to honor him in this special way," said Delta Soror Wanda Rogers, Rider Alumni, 1979.

While being a member of various organizations throughout his life, Brother McElroy was proudest of his over 50 year membership in the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., being initiated in the Eta Sigma Chapter, as an undergrad at Lincoln University, Missouri, and continuing his membership in Trenton, Delta Upsilon Chapter, where he held various offices. He was principally responsible for establishing Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., as the first Black Greek letter organization at Rider in 1977, and he was also advisor to many other social service and other Black Greek organizations during his time at Rider.

While at Rider, Brother McElroy attended Seton Hall Law School in the evenings and received his Law Degree in 1982. His law practice, which opened shortly after, defended hundreds of clients pro-bono in all manner of legal problems. It was also the launching pad for several attorneys who later became prominent in their various specialties. He was later named a prosecuting attorney in Trenton Municipal Court and later appointed a municipal court judge, there. On the bench, Mr. McElroy had a reputation for firmness and fairness, and was respected by prosecuting attorneys, defense attorneys, defendants, and the police.

Delta Upsilon Supports Trenton Youth Employment Program

Delta Upsilon Brothers presenting $2000 check supporting Trenton, NJ Summer Youth Employment Program

Trenton, NJ. June 2017. Delta Upsilon Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. presented a check for $2000 to Paul E. Kuhl, Chairman of the MIDJersey Chamber Board of Directors in support of Mayor Eric E. Jackson's Summer Youth Employment Program. Several members of the Chapter attended the check presentation at the MIDJersey Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, June 15.

This is the second consecutive year in which Delta Upsilon Chapter has pledged support for the City-initiative. In 2016, the program was able to sustain 85 summer jobs for local youth residents and more than a dozen local organizations made financial commitments. This year, the expectation is that 100 or more young adults will be involved. This has escalated the need for more support from corporations and charitable-giving institutions.

"Our financial contribution to the Trenton Summer Youth Program is consistent with our fraternity's commitment to contribute to our community and youth," said Delta Upsilon Basileus, Scott Rice. "We're honored to participate in the event, especially, because the program prepares and provides our youth with skills needed for today's workforce. "And, our participation is an extension of our other community partnership initiatives (i.e., Trenton soup kitchen, blood drive, health fair, cancer walk, Annual Historically Black Colleges & Universities College Fair, etc.), he added.

East Orange, New Jersey, June 17, 2017. Eta Pi Chapter established their Ernest Everett Just Male Mentoring Program twelve years ago in an effort to provide young males opportunities to engage in workshops focusing on the following areas: Leadership, character building, career exploration, life skills development, financial literacy, public speaking, conflict resolution, as well as recreational and cultural events. Bro. Steve Davis solicited the help of several volunteers who worked during the event, all young ladies, and they were recognized at the end of the program. They each received a Certificate of Appreciation. Omega Dignitaries Bro. Kevin Woodhouse, Corridor V Representative and Bro. J. Kendall Smalls, 1st Vice District Representative were in attendance. From all accounts, it was a very successful event.

Gamma Pi Health Fair

College Park, MD. July 29, 2017. When it comes to health, African Americans collectively are tragically lagging other populations. Maladies like cancer, heart disease and diabetes all show profound disparities for black Americans comparatively speaking, increasing the likelihood of premature deaths for many. Gamma Pi Chapter is doing something about it most recently through the communitywide Health Fair held this summer.

The Super Chapter, along with the Greater Praise and Deliverance Tabernacle Church of God in Christ, put on the health fair at the church's worship center 815 Brightseat Road in Landover, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. The event was an opportunity for people in the community to get free screenings and preventive health information. The theme of the Health Fair was "Walking in Wellness With Faith." Close to 100 people came through during the daylong event, said Bro Kevin Ford, Sr., M.D., the lead organizer for the Health Fair.

"I thought for the fact that given this was the first time we held it here, the interest was phenomemal," said Bro. Dr. Ford. "People asked a lot of good questions."

Another Gamma Pi Chapter member who is also a physician, Bro. Lester Miles, M.D., gave a widely attended talk about prostate cancer which affects black men more than any other population group.

Among the other topics addressed at the Health Fair were colorectal cancer, mental health, hypertension and diabetes. The Doctors Community Hospital van was also on-site checking blood pressures and screening for diabetes and cholesterol. About 50 people took part in Zumba exercise classes conducted by Fit for Less.

In June, Gamma Pi Chapter held the Annual Charles Drew Blood Drive in conjunction with the American Red Cross at the Lake Arbor Community Center in Mitchellville, from 9 a.m.- 2 p.m., on Saturday, June 24. During those hours, the Super Chapter was able to collect 29 productive units of blood for the American Red Cross from 25 registered donors, putting it right on the edge of Gamma Pi's goal to collect 30 pints. This was the first year that the blood drive was held in the Lake Arbor Community. In some years, such as this year, Gamma Pi has elected to also host a Health Fair in addition to the annual Charles Drew blood drive as part of its Social Action agenda.

Gamma Pi Project ENRICH

Bowie, MD. September 27, 2017. On this Saturday afternoon, the weather was great. Even though it was officially the second day of Fall, the temperature soared into the 80's and everyone was not yet ready to let go of summer in the DMV. Inside the South Bowie Community Center, some people worked out in the weight room and young men bounced basketballs in the gym. In an assembly room off to the side, a trio of Brothers from Gamma Pi bounced around ideas about how to select a major, how to assess which college is right for you, what courses to focus on the last two years of high school and where to look for scholarship money. Project ENRICH is back!

The program, directed by Brother Willie Hines, held an Open House on Saturday. More than 50 parents and students showed up for the event. They had questions for the upcoming academic year and were eager to get started. Many were new registrants in the 9th grade, which is where the program starts. Students are engaged from grades 9-12 to help them take the right steps to prepare for college. Students meet one Saturday a month at Bowie State University throughout the school year.

Participating along with Brother Hines at Saturday's program were Brothers Brett Blake and Lucien Cox, who all addressed the audience from a panel at the front of the room. Brother Pete Ford was manning the entrance. They along with several other chapter members run Project ENRICH like a small school. Saturday's program was more of a preliminary getting ready for the grind designed to both welcome new students, answer questions from interested students and to set the course for this year. The Opening Convocation was held later on Saturday, October 7 at 10 a.m. at Bowie State's Thurgood Marshall Library.

During Saturday's open house program, questions ranged from what the typical Project ENRICH Saturday is like to the dress code which requires the students to wear business attire to the incoming presenters to how to arrange college visits to registration. There were also queries about scholarship money, college entrance exams, AP courses, community college and opportunities provided by Historically Black Colleges and Universities at a time when those schools' relevance is being challenged. One parent gave a testimonial about her daughter's growth through Project ENRICH. And as a bonus during the Open House, parents and students received a briefing from a Project ENRICH parent about the HBCU College Tour operated by her chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. As is customary with Project ENRICH, Brother Hines looks for every opportunity to get students to get used to public speaking and having ready their 30-second "elevator speech." To that end, Brother Hines had students introduce themselves and talk about their future career goals during the program.

For information about Project ENRICH, visit the program's website (www.projectenrich.org), Facebook page (www.facebook.com/projectenrichprogram) or follow Project ENRICH on Twitter (@projectenrich). Online registration is underway for 2017-18 on the website.

Gamma Pi Combat Domestic Violence

College Park, MD. September 27, 2017 - The Brothers of Gamma Pi don't have any trouble getting up early on a Saturday morning as long as it is for a good cause. That's why they were in the house and in force by 8:30 a.m. today to attend and exhibit at a countywide Domestic Violence conference called MoMENTum, Moving into the Millennium; Elevating the Male Perspective on Domestic Violence. As the crafty titles suggests, the conference was focused on educating men about domestic violence prevention through getting males to see the ripple effect and consequences of domestic violence.

About 25 Chapter members attended the morning workshop, led by Social Action Chairman Kevin Greenwood and the committee. Gamma Pi did not present as part of the program but it sponsored an exhibit display in the lobby along with other organizations. The chapter was able to highlight its community action program to attendees, including former Lt. Governor and current Congressman Anthony Brown and Prince George's County State's Attorney Angela Alsobrooks who were highlighted during the event. The Super Chapter was able to take a photo with them both.

During the Saturday program, Brothers were taking notes, meeting with other participants and speakers, collecting materials and disseminating information about Gamma Pi and Friendship Charities at the chapter's information table.

This year Gamma Pi has explored new avenues to conduct social action activities throughout the community and participation in the domestic violence conference was a part of that new approach. "We're here talking to people throughout the community about how we can get involved," said Bro. Greenwood. "We have learned about a lot of opportunities."

The chapter already works with young males through its periodic visits to the Cheltenham Youth Facility in Prince George's County. It also sponsors programs in the Kentland and Seat Pleasant communities through its Que Kidz initiatives where it also has opportunities to help shape and mold the lives of young boys, including teaching them to have respect for women. Male mentoring and combating domestic violence are two major social action priorities for Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc.

Gamma Pi Senior Cookout

Gamma Pi Brothers serving seniors at the Gamma Pi Senior Cookout

Suitland, MD. July 18, 2017. The Brothers of Gamma Pi have developed a special bond with the seniors at Windsor Crossing apartments in Suitland. Quarterly, the chapter shows up to celebrate residents' birthdays with cake, ice cream and gifts. During the holidays Brothers deliver Thanksgiving turkeys and Christmas gifts. And recently, the Super Chapter took it a step further with a classic, old-fashioned mid-summer cookout held for the Windsor Crossing seniors on Tuesday, July 18. Many Brothers in Gamma Pi love to brag about their grilling skills. Those with the skills put words into action at the event, bringing sizzle to the occasion with jumbo hamburger patties, hot dogs, half smokes, popular sides and salads and other vegetables. But the Brothers also brought something else to the table, as only Gamma Pi could – the Super Chapter brought along cookout-style ambience with music and games and just an all-out good time. But nothing sparked the excitement of the residents like seeing all the Brothers wearing the colors. The Royal Purple and Old Gold puts a spring in the step of the Windsor Crossing seniors!

"The purpose of the Windsor Crossing Cookout is to celebrate the residents of this community and to fellowship with them. The residents were treated to board games, music and of course....great barbeque" aid Brother Kevin Greenwood, chairman of the chapter's Social Action committee. "This was a great experience for them and the Brothers."

About 70 seniors attended the event. More than 20 Brothers, including Basileus Brother Tony Lee, were on-site at the event tending to the food, the seniors and the atmosphere. Others who participated were Terry Hare, Darryl Thompson, Orlando McDowell, Larry Harris, Chris Edwards, Tyron Smith, Mabili Adinyele, Marcus Whitfield, Ken Jones, Ben Greene, David Jackson, Sheku Alieu, Andrew Clarke, Rob Waller, Ricky Manear, James Riley, Kevin Spencer and Raphael Terrell, chapter photographer. Funding for all the food and drinks for the seniors was donated by Omega Gold Development Group courtesy of its Board of Directors.

Gamma Pi Chapter traditionally sponsors a summer picnic at a local park for the seniors. But this year the decision was made to do something a little different to surprise the seniors and to add a new twist. The response was overwhelming and now Gamma Pi may have to reprise the event in the summer of 2018. That's what happens when you do a great job!

Gamma Pi Christmas in April Project

Upper Marlboro, MD. April 29, 2017. Many people are unaware of the commitment Omega Psi Phi men give to their community before sunrise. The Brothers of Gamma Pi Chapter in Prince George's County have been known to get up on many Saturdays while others are still "dreaming" in their sleep, to feed shelter residents, check in on the homeless, and more recently, to help make a home a better and brighter place for a local elderly homeowner through the Annual Christmas in April program. On Saturday, April 29, Brothers converged on a local home in the Crain Highway area of Upper Marlboro to carry out a variety of "housework" chores inside and outside. We're not talking about housework like vacuuming, dusting, doing the dishes or straightening up clutter. This was heavy duty stuff -- yard work, painting, debris removal, shoveling, and hammering and nailing. There was an assortment of tools needed to do the job, including rakes, mowers, edgers, shovels, garden hoes and wheelbarrows. It's all geared towards making the elderly residents' home more livable and presentable.

As Omega men are accustomed to doing, Brothers broke down the project into teams and shifts. There were five shifts beginning with the earlybird 7 a.m. crew and ending with the 3 p.m. late-afternoon team.

"This is an annual Gamma Pi tradition that we proudly give to our constituents in the county," said Brother Kevin Greenwood, who chairs the Social Action committee. "The goal is to provide clean up services to a well-deserving family in the Prince George's County Community. This is what we do."

For several years, Brother Tony Kelly has led Gamma Pi's Christmas in April project. He has made the contacts, organized the chapter and schemed out the on-site projects and tools required. Brother Kelly has inspired the chapter to service on a project that requires much more in the way of sweat equity than many of the other Social Action projects that Gamma Pi does. On a Saturday morning when it is so easy to sleep in -- at least until 9 a.m. -- the call to "manual labor" can go unheeded. But Omega men always rise to the call of purpose and service. When Brother Kelly's emails start coming announcing Christmas in April, Brothers know they must set their alarm clocks for that special Saturday in April. Christmas in April is a non-denominational volunteer organization that repairs the homes of senior citizens who are either low-income and/or physically challenged. In every community, it results in a one day repair project that takes place during the last Saturday in the month. Christmas in April brings together business, corporate, government, religious and community organizations along with local volunteers like the Brothers of Gamma Pi.

The recent Christmas in April project is one of more than 10 Social Action initiatives Gamma Pi has participated in already this year. The chapter has appeared at career days, at a communitywide dialogue on domestic violence, participated in neighborhood cleanups as well as a fitness and wellness expo.

Gamma Pi Senior Banquet

Gamma Pi Brothers blessing the food at the Senior Banquet

Capitol Heights, MD. June 10, 2017. On Saturday, June 10, a squadron of Omega men from Gamma Pi Chapter converged on the Gethsemane United Methodist Church in Capitol Heights for the chapter's Annual Seniors Banquet. As in past years, the event drew a full house of seniors from the local community-- many in their 80s and older -- to an afternoon that featured a hearty hot meal, entertainment, a sermon from a Gamma Pi Brother, musical selections from the Gamma Pi Chorale and games and prizes.

Every year, seniors look forward to seeing "the Ques" show up at Gethsemane on this one Saturday in their popular Purple and Gold. In some cases, the seniors ask for the Brothers by name, remembering the good time they had the previous year. To many of these seniors, some who attend annually, "the Ques" are synonymous with these senior citizens "getting out" for a while, sometimes from a forgotten existence to enjoy a fun afternoon that combines a much-needed social outing with spiritual food. The Gamma Pi seniors banquet perks up the spirit and gets the adrenaline flowing for local seniors who always leave the event feeling like school kids who have just completed an exciting field trip. Many of the seniors are bused in while others are driven to the event by family members and friends.

Chapter members devote a lot of time to the project every year and in keeping with past tradition, members spend most of Friday night grocery shopping and cooking the meals. Brothers also put on aprons and their best aprons and go into "waiter mode" to serve every senior at their table. The attendees do not have to lift even a finger to get food or drink. It is First Class service out on by the Brothers of Gamma Pi, who are only too proud to do it out of deep respect.

As part of its aggressive Social Action program, Gamma Pi makes an effort to reach out to local seniors throughout the year. In addition to the banquet, Gamma Pi sponsors quarterly "birthday bashes" for seniors in the Suitland area and a summer picnic/fish fry. Hats off to Bro. Shake Alieu who coordinated a successful seniors banquet.

This organization raises money to aid wounded warriors with their primary mission to fund service dogs for disabled service men and women who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome (PTSD) and traumatic brain injury (TBI). This unique cycling event ensures that all cyclists ride together following Team Foster's motto "No Hero Left Behind." Brother Archange is also a service member who currently lives and works in Harford County, Maryland on Aberdeen Proving Grounds. All together the cyclists rode over 100 miles in less than 7 hours for this great cause. Iota Nu is proud to have Brother Jimmy Archange as part of our chapter.

Brothers began by winning the 2nd District Undergraduate Scholarship Chapter of the year, a newly created award for the 2nd District that has been won by Kappa chapter both years. This award was followed by Bro. David Gilstrap winning the 2nd District Education Award as well as Bro. Justin Alvarez winning the Second District Scholar of the Year. In addition to these awards, Kappa Chapter advisor Bro. Ben Jeffers was awarded 2nd District Undergraduate Advisor of the Year. Finally, the brothers ended the weekend with Bro. Kappa Chapter Brothers give Van Duyn Elementary School Kids Back Packs

Syracuse, NY. September 6, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter went to Van Duyn Elementary school in Syracuse, New York to welcome the students into school for their first day. This acted as a way to show students positive images as they embark on their first day. After doing this, the brothers gave out 150 backpacks to students who are not as fortunate. The brothers could see they were making a difference as the many children ran up to pick out the bag of their choice while smiling from ear to ear

Kappa Chapter Brothers Come Back to Syracuse University

Kappa Chapter Brothers attending the Syracuse Weekend Celebration

Syracuse, NY. September 16, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter gathered for a chapter reception to celebrate CBT (Coming Back Together) weekend. Kappa chapter brothers from Fall 1968 to Spring 2017 were in attendance for this celebration of the chapter. The event was a great fellowship for all brothers in attendance and showed the strong bond brothers of Kappa chapter have from brothers on the yard currently to those who have been off of the yard for forty five years.

Kappa Chapter Aids High School Students with Applications

Kappa Chapter Brothers with students at Nottingham High School

Syracuse, NY. September 29, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter flocked down to Nottingham High School to aid seniors with their Common Applications as they concluded their Omega Week at Syracuse University. The Brothers deemed that such an event would influence students to further their education. Part of the reasoning some high school students don't go off to college is simply because they don't apply. The Brothers made it an obligation to get out into the Syracuse community to give students a resource and the support they need to jumpstart their Common Applications. The Brothers and volunteers helped students brainstorm essay ideas before heading into the computer lab to work on the essay portion of the application. The Brothers provided pizza and snacks to the students who attended the workshop. This event also allowed brothers to shed light on a tuition free scholarship available to students graduating from a Syracuse City School District High School—"Say Yes to Education Syracuse". Most students in Syracuse are not aware of this educational opportunity. The Say Yes Program provides less privileged kids an opportunity to attend college tuition free, which would be good for students applying to Syracuse University as they would not have to worry about room and board. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter strive to have an impact on the Syracuse community that we currently occupy, hoping to see our work pay off in the years to come and more students into college programs.

Kappa Chapter Meet the Greeks

Kappa Chapter Brothers at the Meet the Greeks Event

Syracuse, NY. September 12, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter participated in Syracuse University's "Meet the Greeks". The Brothers told those in attendance about the fraternity and the service aspects and programs of the fraternity. While doing this, the Brothers were able to talk about Kappa Chapter as well as touching on famous Omega men. The program proved to be very informative teaching those in attendance about the mandated programs and initiatives of the fraternity that they may have not known. Overall, the Brothers showcased Omega positively.

Kappa Chapter Friend or Foe Roundtable

Kappa Chapter Brothers at the Friends or Foe Event

Syracuse, NY. September 27, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter presented “Friend or Foe.” This event, spearheaded by Bro. Zaire Franklin, was a discussion with the university community on the perception of police and campus security. The main point of this forum was to break down why we as people of color are generally anti police as well as why we tend to be uncomfortable and how some have been taught to be anti-police. The Brothers believe that they changed minds of fellow students and that despite the past we as people must understand that not all law enforcement is like those who we see too often doing negative things and hurting communities more than protecting them.

Kappa Chapter Puppies on the Quad Event

Kappa Chapter Brothers and participants at the Puppies on the Quad event.

Syracuse, NY. September 25, 2017. The Brothers of Kappa Chapter partnered with Helping Hounds, a local dog shelter and rescue center in Syracuse, New York. The brothers did this as a way to provide stress relief for students. However, this was also done to raise awareness for the work that the people at Helping Hounds do as well as raising money for them and gaining volunteers as they begin to get more dogs. The brothers followed this up by using social media to raise money for Helping Hounds by donating a dollar for every picture posted of students at SU giving a hug to a yard brother while using the hashtag #WholesomeHugs.

Harlem Omegas host 2017 Five Borough Food Pantry Project Awards

Kappa Omicron Brothers with Award recipient at the 5 Borough Food Pantry Event.

New York, NY. July 8, 2017. Kappa Omicron Chapter held their annual 5 borough food pantry on July 8, 2017 at the chapter house, to continue a project started in 2009. Spearheaded by co-chairs Brothers Tom Wallace and Ray Haskins they have raised over $25,000 since the program's inception. Initially the program received contributions from the chapter, but it expanded to other chapters within the corridor, and the community at large. Hunger along with homelessness are two of the biggest problems of the day. It was a mission of the program to be a blessing to this population including veterans who served our country, and sometimes now are forgotten.

The recipient organizations received a donation of $1000 each. They are Convent Avenue Baptist Church-Manhattan, Stapleton Union American Methodist Episcopal Church – Staten Island, Bronx Salvation Army-Bronx, Saint Albans Congressional Church- Queens, and Black Veterans for Social Justice- Brooklyn.

We have already started raising funds for next year's event. Contact Brother Tom Wallace if you would like to help.

Kappa Omicron Celebrate Brother William E. Mims 97th Birthday

Kappa Omicron Brothers at the Chapter Fraternity House celebrating Brother William E. Mims 97th Birthday

New York, NY. July 15, 2017. Psalm 90:10 the Bible partially says "the days of our life are three score and 10". Kappa Omicron chapter was blessed to celebrate the 97th birthday of our chapter brother, William E. Mims. Initiated into Omega through Psi chapter in 1938, he is the longest serving, financial brother in Corridor V. He may hold this distinction within the Second District.

Roughly 40 brothers from New York and New Jersey contributed to the celebration. Brother Mims was very moved by the outpouring of love, and reverence by those in attendance. First time in his life he had a birthday celebration like this in his life. The chapter's gift to Brother Mims will be to pay his dues going forward and to make a donation in his name to Morehouse College.

LGG Host 21st Annual International Que Reunion

Ft. Meade, MD. July 13-16, 2017. During the summer of 1996, several Brothers who had served together overseas in Germany, Korea, Panama and other areas outside the continental United States both military and Department of Defense civilians got together in the National Capital Region for a cookout and attendance at a local chapter (Psi Alpha Alpha, Fairfax County, Va.) annual boat ride. The purpose of the gathering was to rekindle the friendship developed many years ago serving abroad with and without families.

The gathering was held again in 1997 in the NCR and was called the Theta Rho/Lambda Xi after two of the oldest military overseas chapters and where many of the brothers had served. Activities included a no-host party, cookout and attendance on the PAA Boat Ride.

In 1999, Lambda Gamma Gamma Chapter of Fort Meade, Md. under the leadership of Basileus S. Earl Wilson and Vice Basileus James Mullen formalized the gathering as the International Que Reunion and as a major chapter fundraiser in support of the chapter scholarship and community support programs.

Since 2001, the IQR has rotated between the Washington, DC metro area and Atlanta, Georgia hosted by Lambda Gamma Gamma and Phi Kappa Kappa Chapters.

This year's reunion included a meet and greet at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Annapolis, Md.; a Linen & Lace Party (same location); the LGG annual cookout and a "School Daze themed party after the cookout.

Brothers from as far away as Barstow, Calif., White Sands Missile Range, N.M. and Honolulu, Hawaii attended the three day event along with hundreds of patrons, families and friends.

To add a new twist to the cookout, Just Friends Band under the leadership of Brother Sherman Charles, current Second District Representative, Omega Psi Phi, Fraternity, Inc. and former Basileus of LGG put on a flawless performance of old and new school music to entertain the crowd. Also included in this year's event was the awarding of the chapter's $30K high school scholarships and the announcement of the annual scholarship raffle.

"I knew that chairing this event would be a huge task and that it would take a good team of dedicated brothers to ensure the visiting brothers and patrons enjoyed themselves as they reunited with brothers and told stores of their times overseas", said Rickey Harris, IQR chairman.

"What I love about the IQR is that in two years, I get to go to Atlanta,

Washington, D.C. July 2017. This year 2017, Lambda Gamma Gamma (LGG) awarded approximately $30K in scholarship to deserving High School graduating seniors and returning college students. On Saturday, July 15, 2017, LGG Chapter extended congratulations to the 2017 High School and Continuing Education level scholarship awardees! Out of nearly 100 applications this year, LGG awarded approximately 31 scholarship recipients. The scholarships are awarded based on GPA, Extra Curricular Activities and a graded essay assignment. This year's essay topic was the "Affordable Care Act" (ACA) one of President Obama's major legislative accomplishments aimed at making healthcare more affordable for all Americans. Applicants had to write a 1000 to 1200 word essay describing their knowledge of ACA and how it impacted access to health-care. Applicants were also asked to comment on whether or whether not going forward with the ACA should be: 1.) improved and amended, or 2) repealed and replaced. Not a single student recommended repeal and replace. However, they offered some very strong recommendations for improving the legislation.

LGG Competes in the National Capital BBQ Battle

Washington, D.C. June 24 -25, 2017. The Brothers of Lambda Gamma Gamma Chapter (LGG) of Omega Psi Phi, Fraternity, Inc. participated in the Annual Giant National Capital Barbeque Battle in Washington, DC. The annual event benefits both the USO-Metro and the Capital Area Food Bank, raising over 2 million dollars for these and other notable District charities. The BBQ Battle is one of the largest and most unique BBQ and music festivals in the United States, offering a downtown DC experience with a chance to indulge in the thrills of competition barbequing. Master Grillers from around the country come to share their hickory and cherry-smoked treats to "grill seekers." And if that is not enough, Master Grillers have a chance to win over $40,000 in prizes. BBQ legends from TV shows compete side by side with top Grillers from around the country, seeking to win the coveted "America's National Barbeque Champion" moniker.

Make no mistake about it... this event is the tastiest Summer festival in the country, featuring live music; powerful vocals and soulful melodies; Rock, Reggae, Jazz, and Go Go shows; unforgettable aromas; and the most recognized group of enthusiastic men wearing Old Gold and Royal Purple, serving ice-cold drinks throughout the weekend. As the aromatic scents of grilled chicken, ribs, brisket, sausages, pork and lamb chops, hot dogs, hamburgers, and sweet corn cover Pennsylvania Avenue like a cluster of large clouds, the LGG Brothers serve dutifully, laugh, fellowship, and punctuate an unforgettable weekend.

The Brothers served cold beverages to over 1,000 patrons each day. It was during these periods (while the brothers were loading coolers, restocking the inventory, and simply serving the event's patrons) that the brothers continually heard unending "Thank You's," "I cannot believe these educated men are serving their community for free," and "This is what Omega Men do!" With these expectant, kind, and thoughtful words from the event's attendees, the 65-man Omega crew simply did what the

LGG Brothers serving with the largest tent at the 2017 National Capital BBQ Battle Fraternity's watchword demands!

This Annual event is just one of the many events that LGG unselfishly and diligently performs each year in the Capital Region. The organizers will continue to ring the bell, seeking a hand from the great men of LGG, and we will continue to answer each year. If you are ever in the area during the BBQ Battle, pull up your sleeves; stop by the biggest serving tent; grab a 30-pound bag of ice, fish for a "cold one" from the bottomless cooler, meet and mingle with the thousands of attendees, and fellowship with the Brothers from LGG!

Mu Nu 2017 Game Changers Conference for Young Males

Participants at the Mu Nu Game Changers Conference

Montgomery Cty, MD. April 2017. 2nd District, Mu Nu Chapter in Montgomery County, Maryland held the 2017 Game Changer Conference for Young Males on Saturday, April 29, 2017. The conference is truly unprecedented in that it is the only “mentoring conference” of this magnitude for young males in Montgomery County, Maryland. Over the last six years, the conference has impacted more than 3,000 male students (approximately 500 per year) from Montgomery County and surrounding communities.

Mu Nu Chapter partnered with Montgomery County Public School System, Montgomery College, The Universities at Shady Grove and UCF Youth Development Organization to host the 2017 “Game Changer” Conference in the sixth year. This year saw a marked increase of adult men, parents, volunteers and community leaders that attended the male mentoring conference at the Universities at Shady Grove, Rockville.

Opening remarks were delivered by Mu Nu dynamic Basileus Kelvin Amopofo. His messages “to make it happen”, “to be early is to be on time, to be on time is to be late, to be late is unacceptable,” and “excuses are tools of the incompetence used to build monuments of nothingness and those who use them seldom amount to anything – Excuses!” to our elementary, middle, and high schoolers respectively spoke to challenges they face at an age appropriate level to help them be successful at all levels.

Students hearts and minds were touched by this inspiring, uplifting and life-changing experience—all while encouraging young male students to commit themselves to excellence as a person, student, and athlete in all their undertakings.

Conference Objective: To show our young males that they are valued and that we (parents and educators) do care about their success. The one-day conference is geared towards African-American and Hispanic young males: Elementary (4th & 5th), Middle and High School students in Montgomery County and the nearby communities. The aim is to raise awareness and promote student success amongst male students by providing strategies to win with academics and athletics. Achievement and Performance Matters!

Mentor Groups from New York, Baltimore and Western Maryland also participated in the conference. The annual conference provides young males and their mentors with a forum to discuss male-related issues, participate in educational, interactive and motivational workshops as well as learn some basic life skills (e.g., proper handshake, tie tying, 30’s second interview, auto safety).

Conference Features:

Six Life Skill Stations including Fire and Rescue Department, AAA Auto Safety Stations, and Enrichment Workshop for Male Forums included Learning Styles, Fatherhood Initiative, Crucial Conversation, STEM –

Changing the Game in the 21st Century

2017 ESSAY Writing Competition for Students: 17 students submitted essays on the Conference Theme: “RESPECT is a Game Changer: Why is this a vital ingredient to your success at home, school, and in the community?” Zaire Fulmore, Flower Valley Elementary School was the winner for the 4th and 5th Graders, Mesai Fulmore, Rose Parks Middle School won for the third consecutive year and Ronald Mattox, Richard Montgomery High School was the High School winner.

As part of the conference mission to advance young male success (academic, career, athletic and personal), some of the community area’s best leaders, teachers, practitioners, counselors and advocates, in secondary and post-secondary education, joined approximately 50 parents and guardians.

Through highly informative and interactive presentations such as: student learning styles; college and career preparation; parent advocacy; social media literacy; strategic thinking and planning; applying for college scholarships and other financial aid resources; and navigating the middle school and high school experience for maximum academic achievement, parents and guardians were provided with proven strategies and practical solutions for developing the next generation of Game Changers. There was also a discussion on ways to “stay woke,” or to stay aware AND active, as part of the role and work of being an effective parent advocate.

The Conference also featured two special panel discussions to provide youth with strategies and pathways for success. The first panel entitled “Male Real Straight Talk” was moderated by John Haynes and included special guests Bobby Gailles, WHUR Radio 96.3 Personality from the Steve Harvey Morning Show; William Tipper Thomas III, Advocate/Engineer/Survivor from a Baltimore shooting; and Albert Thompson, an expert on social media usage by youth.

The conference closed with the second panel discussion “Real Talk” with the Montgomery County Police Department Officers. Brother Officer P. J. Gregory introduced the Assistant Chief of Police Darryl Mc Swain for a length “real talk” dialog.

Officers discussed the importance of knowing who your friends are, being aware who you ride with and the potential consequences if stopped by the police with regards to criminal possession and other legal implications, and how to engage/speak with police officers to prevent escalation of events.

We are stronger when we work together to shape the next generation of young leaders. Your continued support and dedication is critical to our collective success.

Philadelphia, PA. May 29, 2017. The chapter's "QueVets" participated in two Memorial Services. attendance: Dr. William Harris, recipient of a purple heart in combat and Nathan Thomas, member of the Tuskegee Air Man..

The QueVets then joined the Colonel Charles Young American Legion Post #682 for their Memorial Service. The service started with a short parade ending at the Post at 159 E. Sharpnack Street. Congressman Dwight Evans marched in the parade along with Post Commander Tyrone Love. The Post's Drum and Drill Team added a beautiful touch to the parade with their music and their military precision stepping. The service honored those members who passed since last Memorial Day. Several members were also acknowledged for outstanding service during the year. The memorial service ended with the playing of Taps. QueVets William Smith and Larry Smallwood were very instrumental in making the contacts and coordinating the events.

Mu Omega Blood Drive

Philadelphia, PA. June 2017. Mu Omega chapter held the annual Dr. Charles R. Drew Memorial Blood Drive at the Mu Omega Fraternity House in the Germantown section of Philadelphia. As most Brothers know, the Blood Drive is a mandated program of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. facilitated by each chapter of the Fraternity. It is held annually in June in conjunction with the American Red Cross. The focus of the Blood Drive is to serve the community-at-large and honor a great Omega man; Dr. Charles R. Drew. The Dr. Charles R. Drew Memorial Blood Drive was started in Mu Omega as a chapter event in 1998. Through the vision and efforts of Bro. Allan E. Thomas, Ph.D. with the assistance of former Grand Keeper of Records and Seal, Terrel D. Parris, the event was adopted by International Headquarters and became a nationally mandated program.

At this year's Blood Drive, Mu Omega Chapter Brothers, along with their families and members of the community, came to the Mu Omega Fraternity house to donate blood. All Mu Omega donations this year were "blue tagged," meaning that they were earmarked by the Red Cross for patients of sickle cell disease, which as most know, predominantly affects African-Americans. A number of Omega Brothers came out to support the blood drive; the turnout was so good that towards the end of the event, the Red Cross staff had to turn away several people looking to donate blood because there was a backlog of people still waiting to give. Mighty Mu Omega Chapter prides itself in not only having the vision to make the Blood Drive a mandated program of Omega Psi Phi but also in continuing to support its' need by facilitating the event each year in the City of Philadelphia. Further, accomplishing this feat exemplifies the underlying principle known by Omega men worldwide-"living your creed".

Omicron Chi National Summer Reading Day

Plainfield, NJ. July 15, 2017. Up to two months of reading skills can be lost over the summer, however, studies show that reading four to five books over the summer has a positive impact comparable to summer school enrollment. On July 15, 2017 the brothers of Omicron Chi Chapter continued the initiative that assaults this particular focus of illiteracy by reading with more than 50 children from the community.

Studies show that as early as grade one, Summer Learning loss can be recognized in children and that the equivalent of one month of overall learning is lost after summer vacation. In light of this evidence, it is no wonder that many of the children in our communities are falling behind and/or having trouble keeping up with their curriculum. Any many cases, teachers are having to spend the first couple of months of the school year in review of the previous year's material rather than moving on to next level subject matter.

Now that we've identified the problem, what is the solution you might ask? Oxford Learning recommends only 2-3 hours per week during summer vacation to prevent any learning loss. Ms. Janelle D. Williams, Principal of Arbor Intermediate School in Piscataway, NJ suggested the following:

"During the summer, parents should allow their child to read for enjoyment, at a level designated by their teacher or by having their child pick "just right" books to read. When selecting the "just right" book, a child can choose a text which they find interesting and begin reading the first few pages. If a child is able to read the book without stumbling often over words or phrases and is able to answer questions about the book, it is most often a good choice to read. In addition, parents should find out the basic academic needs or prerequisites for their child's next grade. For example 4th and 5th grade students should have a strong grasp on multiplication facts in order to more easily solve increasingly complex problems and concepts that will be introduced in the next grade."

With all of this great research and experience in mind, Omicron Chi chapter decided to designate 3 hours during one day in the middle of Summer 2017 to read to and read with the children of the Plainfield, NJ community. A total of 20 men of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and 51 children along with their parent(s)/guardian(s) were in attendance. Omicron Chi Chapter also partnered with the Plainfield NJ Public Library, DJ Black, G.M.C., and the Plainfield Fire Department, Delta Sigma Theta, Inc., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., and The National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, Inc. "This program was absolutely amazing. I know so many parents who pay hundreds of dollars to provide summer reading experiences for their child, and you men are offering it for free!" said Nikelle King, Participating Mom

Our vision for this ongoing effort is to not only make a difference in the local community but lead the way for others to implement the same program in their own communities regardless of fraternal affiliations. Omicron Chi Chapter plans to launch a major campaign to see National Summer Reading Day a federally recognized holiday through petition within the next few months. If your chapter, or, other organization(s) would like to participate in the 2018 National Summer Reading Day, please visit www.nationalsummerreadingday.com for more details.

Omicron Chi Organizes Take Back the Night Rally

Omicron Chi Brothers at then "Take Back the Night Rally"

Plainfield, NJ. April 20, 2017. On a balmy spring evening, hundreds of residents from the Central New Jersey area came to Plainfield's City Hall to address sexual violence during sexual assault awareness month. The event, organized by the Omicron Chi Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, took place on the steps of Plainfield's City Hall, and featured powerful guest speakers, including sexual assault advocates, community leaders, law enforcement officers, and sexual assault survivors. A 16 year-old spoken word artist ended the evening by delivering a powerful poem about sexual assault.

The event sought to illuminate the high level of sexual assault in Central New Jersey and around the country, and to inspire the crowd to take action. According to takebackthenight.org, one in three women worldwide experience some form of sexual violence or intimate partner violence. One in six men experience sexual violence. Less than 50% of victims report these crimes.

"We as men of Omega feel that it is important that we support all victims of violence, but particularly during the month of April we feel that it is important to celebrate the lives and courage of those who have suffered sexual assault," said Omicron Chi Basileus Leon Smith. "We also felt the need to be a voice for those who cannot speak for themselves to let victims know that they are loved and supported."

The Take Back the Night rally was the first of its kind organized by the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. Co-sponsors of the event, Delta Sigma Theta, Central NJ Alumni Chapter; the New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault, Safe + Sound Somerset, and the Union County Rape Crisis Center all joined the men of the Omicron Chi Chapter in the ongoing effort to end sexual violence in Central New Jersey, the city of Plainfield, and beyond.

"We felt it was very important to engage the men of our chapter and to encourage them to be present and show up for the girls and women – and also boys and men in our community – who have been negatively affected by sexual assault or rape," said Byron Hurt, the event's chairperson. We also thought it important for the community to see us, as men, speaking out on these issues. We felt it would send a very powerful message to the community in which we serve."

Take Back the Night is a national organization designed to create safe communities and respectful relationships through awareness events and initiatives. The organization seeks to end sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual abuse and all other forms of sexual violence. Take Back the Night rallies first emerged in the U.S. in the early 1970's as a way for women to protest rape and all forms of sexual violence.

Omicron Chi "Takes A Stand" Against Domestic Violence

Omicron Chi Brothers John Metz and Byron Ward with Safe + Sound Director of Development, Veronica Finley during the Safe + Sound Somerset's Annual Domestic Violence Candlelight Visual.

Plainfield, NJ. October 2017. The Men of Omicron Chi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. joined millions of Americans across the U.S. in honoring National Domestic Violence Awareness Month (DVAM). The National Coalition Against Domestic Violence shares that "every 9 seconds in the United States, a woman is assaulted or beaten, an average of 20 people are physically abused by intimate partners every minute. That equates to 10 million people abused annually". With a focus on exemplifying our Cardinal Principle of "Manhood", the members of Omicron Chi Chapter brought needed exposure and awareness to the impact of senseless domestic violence against women, men, and children.

The Omicron Chi chapter "Take a Stand" initiative encompassed participation in Domestic Violence Awareness events throughout Union County and Central New Jersey including the Safe + Sound Somerset annual candlelight vigil. Held on October 5th, 2017, the event was attended by over 100 supporters. The emotional vigil focused on remembrance of survivors and victims of domestic violence in Central New Jersey. Omicron Chi members stood side by side with families of victims and provided needed emotional support.

On Saturday October 14th, 2017, members of Omicron Chi chapter participated at the City of Plainfield's 7th Annual Historic Queen City Walk for Life and shared literature and facts regarding Domestic Violence. Chapter Brothers took pictures and "selfies" with run/walk participants and supporters with the "Take A Stand" against Domestic Violence banner. The pictures were later uploaded to social media outlets including the National Domestic Violence Centers webpage.

Additionally, Omicron Chi supported the Lillian and Lillian Foundation's Annual fundraiser with the purchase of tickets and a journal advertisement. Located in Union, New Jersey, Lillian and Lillian Foundations' mission is to "teach character education which invariably improves our society and particularly how Bullying, Teen Dating and Violence, and Domestic Violence hurts and kills".

Throughout the month October, the Men of Omicron Chi chapter wore the symbolic DVAM purple ribbons and passed out over 200 of the ribbons to area residents and chapter backers advocating support of victims and survivors of domestic violence. It is our goal to continue providing support to initiatives and demonstrated advocacy for victims of domestic violence.

Brother Leon Smith, Basileus Omicron Chi Chapter and Brother Ali Salaam deliver workshop to Black Male Achiever's Group at Union County College

Cranford, NJ. September 27, 2017. Omicron Chi chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and Union County College (UCC) have established a mentoring partnership to further enhance the lives of the participants of UCC's Black Male Achievers Program. Utilizing the framework of Omicron Chi Chapter's Omega Leadership Institute (OLI) the partnership with Union County College will focus on driving successful academic outcomes for the participants through self-improvement, personal development, and leadership skills. The program partnership was officially launched on September 27th, 2017 with 21 young men.

The 2017-18 Omega Leadership Institute program theme entitled "Defying Perception" will place a high emphasis on defining individual purpose and personal values. The keen focus on personal self-development is intended to equip the young men with the ability to overcome stereotypes of African American Males while creating the perceptions and personal brands that will define their careers and lives. The overall goal for the young men is to set both short-term and long term goals that will improve academic success at Union County College and beyond.

Brother Leon Smith, Omicron Chi Basileus states "The Men of the "Might OX" are huge advocates of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity's "National Fatherhood Initiative". Through this new mentoring endeavor, it is our collective goal as a chapter to improve the matriculation, retention, and graduation rate of underrepresented college student's particularly young men of color."

In 2013, The Omicron Chi chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. established The Omega Leadership Institute (OLI) to provide college bound African-American males (14-18 years old) in the Union County and Central New Jersey region with the encouragement, leadership skills, and support to make meaningful contributions to their communities. Through the intensive leadership development sessions, the OLI exposes student participants to higher education and includes motivational speakers, leadership exercises, small group sessions, interactive workshops, and access to business professionals and community leaders.

Omicron Chi Chapter Social Action Chairmen, Brother Byron Ward, states that "The Brothers of Omicron Chi Chapter have made it an imperative to develop the next generation of African-American Male leaders for the public, private, non-profit, and entrepreneurial sectors. By expanding the OLI program to the Community College community, the Men of Omicron Chi chapter seek to build a new model and template for mentoring young college men of color that can be replicated throughout chapters of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. across the United States."

Omicron Chi National Online Learning Day

Plainfield, NJ. September 15, 2017. The Founders of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. recognized the importance of the intellect in all matters pertaining to the advancement of humankind. As such, they made Scholarship the foremost of the Fraternity's four Cardinal Principles: Manhood, Scholarship, Perseverance, and Uplift. Every member, Chapter, and District of the Fraternity is dedicated to Scholarship.

It is with this spirit of education and learning in mind that Omicron Chi chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. was again a sponsor of National Online Learning Day (NOLD). On September 15th, 2017, National Online Learning Day recognized the advantages and vast potential of online learning and the accomplishments of those students everywhere. Omicron Chi chapter is honored to support this important endeavor and the represent Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. as the first of any global Fraternity/Sorority organization to do so as well.

Brother Byron Ward, Social Action Chair of Omicron Chi chapter states "Whether you've ever taken an online course, attended an online school, used online educational resources at a traditional brick-and-mortar school, taught an online class, or have a child or friend who's an online student, this day is for you! It's a day to showcase how online learning has helped people accomplish their goals and dreams and check things off their bucket list!"

Online learning plays a significant role in a lifelong education. In fact, a recent report by the U.S. Department of Education found that "classes with online learning (whether taught completely online or blended) on average produce stronger student learning outcomes than do classes with solely face-to-face instruction." Every day, students are earning high school diplomas, certificates, college degrees, and credits online. National Online Learning Day brings nationwide recognition to these students.

Brother Leon Smith, Basileus of Omicron Chi chapter stated "The Men of Omicron Chi Chapter believe that Omega Men should be advocates of life-long learning opportunities to increase our personal knowledge and wisdom. National Online Learning Day will continue to provide us with an avenue to showcase the intellect of Omega Men across the world while improving the communities in which we live and support."

Tau Pi Brothers with representative from Leola Dorsey Community Resource Center

Jessup, MD. August 12, 2017. Tau Pi Chapter agreed to adopt rooms with assistance from Volunteers of America Chesapeake, Howard Housing and Grassroots. On August 12, 2017, Brothers were on hand to celebrate the grand opening of the Leola Dorsey Community Resource Center. This was the first facility of its kind in Howard County that contains 35 efficiency apartments, food, clothing, resource rooms for employment searches, and additional services. Spearheading this effort was our Community Service Initiative (CSI) Committee.

Initially, the Committee had worked to establish relationships with the county and sought to have a clothing drive for the underprivileged. However, after reaching out to Volunteers of America Chesapeake, the committee became acquainted with opportunities through Howard County Housing. According to committee chair Bro. Shawn Lamb, Howard County Housing liked the committee's enthusiasm, and as a result Howard County Housing extended the opportunity to the chapter to adopt all 35 efficiency apartments for chronically homeless and disabled individuals.

The committee sensed a great opportunity to serve the community. Chapter representatives met with representatives from Howard County Housing; Cynthia Lynch and Tiffany Smith; and Grassroots Ayesha Holmes to receive clarity on the meaning of adopting a room in the facility.

Bro. Shawn Lamb, former Basilei Eric Clark and David Charon, learned that adopting a room at the new facility included providing necessary essentials to furnish rooms in order to prepare them for the arrival of new tenants.

Current Basileus Martinez Harlee stated "We are truly delighted that our beloved organization could play a major role in this project and we will continue to support this project ongoing."

Columbia, MD. September 16, 2017. There was a ribbon cutting to officially celebrate turning the school, which has been used as a maintenance facility for the school system, to a county cultural and educational center. Present and providing remarks were County Executive Allan Kittleman and District 13 state Del. Tau Pi Chapter Bro. Frank Turner. The school was opened in 1949 as the only county high school for Black students. It was closed in 1965 after Howard County schools were desegregated. He stated that he understands the importance of the school's legacy and that its history needs to be told and not forgotten in Howard County. Since being elected in 2014, Kittle-

-man has had a passion for the project. As a non-African American, his father Robert served as the president of the local NAACP chapter and as a State Senator.

Tau Pi Chapter Bro. State Del. Frank Turner has been a longtime advocate of the transformation for more than two decades. Tau Pi Scholarship recipients Malachi and Christian Dofat with Mom, Paula Dofat

Columbia, MD. June 2017. Each year Tau Pi has awarded scholarships to graduating seniors in the Howard County Public School System. This year we had three of our Mentees graduate and will be attending college in the Fall of 2017. Two of the three, who are fraternal twins, have been with our mentoring program since they were in 4th grade. This year we were able to grant each $2,000.

Christian Dofat graduated from Altholton High School in Columbia, MD. He will attend LIU in Brooklyn, NY. Shem Darko graduated from the SEED School in Baltimore, MD and will attend Salisbury, MD University. His brother Daniel also graduated from the SEED School and will attend Marshall University in Huntington, WV.

Tau Pi Chapter is extremely proud of the academic achievement of these young men. We sponsored them on a HBCU Tour; instructed them and their parents in the completion of the FAFSA application; and worked with them in completing and submitting scholarship applications from organizations listed from web sites.

Christian's brother, Malachi was one of our mentees several years ago. He has returned to some of our Saturday mentoring sessions during his college breaks to share his college experience with our present High School mentees. His mother Paula works as a counselor in the Baltimore City Public School ChSystem and has been a tremendous asset in providing guidance, instructions and directions to these students and their parents.

Tau Pi's "The UnbreaQueable Eight"

Columbia, MD. April 29, 2017. At 1:45 PM on April 29, 2017, eight men totally immersed in the Spirit of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. via Tau Pi Chapter crossed those "Burning Sands".

These eight Brothers have been a welcomed addition to the chapter. As the clique states, "They have hit the ground running". Basileus Marty Harlee has appointed three of them to Officer's positions. They are Bro. Vernon Curry as Assistant KRS; Bro. Richard McClendon as Assistant KF; and Bro. Nicholas Meade as the Assistant Chaplain.

Tau Pi Chapter has approximately 34 Standing, Ad Hoc, and various committees. The 2017 Neos are serving on over 40% of them. We give a special Que Shout Out to Bro. Nicholas Meade. He has stepped up as the Chapter webmaster. He has developed our web site (taupiques.org) and orchestrates our video presentations during chapter meetings. One of Basileus Marty Harlee's goals this year was to develop a working web site to centrally house all of the chapter's history, minutes, directory, and committee reports. With today's technology, we can also capture events, videos and pictures.

Since their acceptance into the fold, the UnbreaQUEable 8 has conducted many of their own social action programs. Of noteworthy was the recent partnership with Howard County Homewood Center. It is a local Alternative School designed for students experiencing difficulty in functioning in a traditional classroom setting.

Tau Pi Chapter is blessed and proud to have 97 year old Bro. Gerald Q. Greenfield who has been a Que since 1940. He has been financial for all 77 years. The charge to these NEOs is the same. They have been advised that nationally only 20% of Intakes remain financial after their three year prepaid dues expire. What will be their CHOICE???

Tau Pi vs. Pi Omega Inaugural Softball Classic

Tau Pi and Pi Omega Brothers display great sportsmanship after the softball game

Columbia, MD. June 3, 2017. Batter Up! Nothing exemplifies fellowship more than a good fraternal game of softball among Neighboring Chapters of Mighty Ques. Tau Pi Reclamation and Retention Committee Chairman Bro. Richard Rogers reached out to Pi Omega Chapter to organize the event.

On Saturday, June 3, 2017, Pi Omega Chapter of Baltimore, MD traveled to Howard County for an exciting game at Guilford Park in Jessup, MD. The weather was perfect and the field was freshly manicured. Both teams came prepared for a competitive game of softball plus talk some Big Smack.

Pi Omega jumped out to an early 5-0 lead, but Tau Pi rallied to tie the score at the end of the first inning. Both teams substituted Bruhs in and out of the game. Tau Pi used multiple pitchers and Pi Omega platooned multiple heavy hitters. In the end, Pi Omega came out victorious, but the best part of the day was yet to come.

Following the game, Bruhs and family took a short walk to the park pavilion where the "SET OWT" commenced. Bruhs and their families enjoyed hot dogs, hamburgers and other snacks. Music blared, Bruhs "hopped", and children took full advantage of the park's playground.

Tau Pi and Pi Omega chapters have committed to making this an annual event. There was some talk of possibly opening it up to other chapters in Corridor One.

Cecil Short Charity Foundation Golf Tournament. This year, the tournament was held at Joint Base Andrews, in Clinton MD, on May 20th 2017. The golf event had over 40 golfers who participated and a host of donators who supported our event.

In addition to rain-free weather in late spring, all the golfers began their round with one thought in mind – Have Fun. By the end of the rounds, it was apparent the JW&WCS Foundation Golf Tournament was a four star event. Winners included first, second, and third place golfers as well as closest to the pin for male and female and longest drive competitions. To say the least, the Brothers rolled out the purple and gold carpet for our guest.

The staff of Joint Base Andrews catered to the TLL Brothers and our guest. They helped organize the foursomes, and captured scores with accuracy and humor. More importantly, the food following the golf rounds was exceptional. Brothers enjoyed Pot Roast, hamburgers, and array of healthy sides that would make any mother proud. Once the again, the Southern Maryland Ques hosted another event that left participates anxiously awaiting for next year.

TLL Holds its 3rd Annual Perseverance 5k Race

Participants at the Perseverance 5K Prostate Cancer Run

White Plains, MD. September 16, 2017. The Men of the Tau Lambda Lambda Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc, held its 3rd annual Perseverance 5K, in support of Prostate Cancer Research, which took place on a scenic, curvy course along the Indian Head Rail Trail in White Plains, MD, just as summer comes to an end. The TLL Perseverance 5K is one of the most popular races as the fall running season gets underway.

52 participants, which included men, women, and children came out to support as well as to spread the word about prostate cancer awareness. Each September, the eyes of the nation turn to focus on prostate cancer during Prostate Cancer Awareness Month.

Prostate cancer is the most common cancer among men (after skin cancer) and has affected over 2 million men in the US. Prostate cancer mainly affects men over the age of 50 and the risk for development increases with age. The average age for men to be diagnosed with prostate cancer is between 70 and 74 years. If you are under 50, then your risk of getting prostate cancer is very low. Younger men can be affected, but this is rare. With proper diagnoses, it can often be treated successfully.

The race was held under the umbrella of one of the Fraternity's mandated programs, the Health Initiative, by which chapters facilitate, participate and coordinate activities that promote good health practices.

Health committee chairman Akida Jordan stated "Supporting such a worthy cause is essential. This race help keep the focus on a disease that many of us, as men, have experienced. We as an organization are trying to do our part to support and increase awareness through our annual race in the tri-county area."

Theta Omicron and the Rochester Medical Academy

Bro. Dr. Lemuel A. Rogers

Rochester, NY. May 16, 2017. The Rochester Medical Academy held its 117th Annual Meeting and Awards Ceremony. Brothers from Theta Omicron led by Bro. Dr. Christopher J. Richardson were in attendance to witness the awarding of the 2nd Annual Dr. Lemuel A. Rogers Memorial Scholarship. In 2016, the late, Bro. Dr. Lemuel A. Rogers became the first African American Physician to be enshrined on the esteemed Wall of Honor at the headquarters of the Rochester Academy of Medicine. We were honored to have members of Bro. Dr. Rogers family members in attendance.

Bro. Dr. Rogers was initiated in Beta Chapter at Lincoln University. He received his medical degree from Howard University in 1963. His journey in medicine carried him to the National Institute of Health, Philadelphia General Hospital, the Temple University Health Sciences Center and finally, the establishing of an OB/GYN practice in partnership with the late James O. Robinson, MD, that lasted for over 13 years. Doctors Rogers and Robinson were the first African American doctors to own a medical building and launch a joint practice.

Over the course of 30 plus years, Bro. Dr. Rogers delivered over 5,000 babies and a set of Quadruplets. He developed strong medical and community ties with area hospitals and service based organizations. He volunteered his time and resources to assist young medical students and the persons receiving care. His extensive outreach to youth, underserved citizens, health research and service organizations, established him as a community treasure and a strong, faithful, contributing member of Theta Omicron Chapter.

It is for these contributions and more, that the Medical Academy with the strong advocacy of Brothers Dr. Christopher Richardson, Larry Pough and 39th Grand Basileus Dr. Andrew Ray, moved to engage the chapter, in establishing The Dr. Lemuel A. Rogers Memorial Scholarship. Theta Omicron Scholarship Foundation donated the seed money to establish the scholarship. The brothers of Theta Omicron are tirelessly working to establish an endowment to ensure this "Omega Legacy Lives On" in the Rochester community.

The 2017 recipient of the Dr. Lemuel A. Rogers Memorial Scholarship is Miss Amanda Onalaja, a second-year medical student at the University of Rochester School of Medicine. The scholarship was presented by Dr. Margie Shaw, Chairperson for the Academy of Medicine Board of Directors and Bro. Dr. Christopher Richardson.

Zeta Iota Iota Juneteenth Parade

Philadelphia, PA. June 17, 2017. Zeta Iota Iota, Mu Omega and Mu chapters coordinated by Qasim Rashad, Second District NAACP/CEF Chair combined to represent Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc in Philadelphia's second Annual Juneteenth Parade sponsored by PCOL (Philadelphia Community of Leaders).

This growing event starts at Washington Square Park 7th and Locust Streets in Center City which is formerly referred to as "Congo Square". It is so named because it is an original African Slave auction site. The parade marched passed Independence Hall where the Declaration of Independence was signed and stopped for ceremonial tributes where the Liberty Bell rests.

This sacred ground also houses a monument to the enslaved Africans of President George Washington. The former slaves once lived in that same location in the Presidential mansion while Philadelphia served as the nation's first capitol. There was a ceremonial lying of a wreath to pay respects to those enslaved African ancestors. The irony of the place known, as "The Cradle of Liberty" was not lost as Attorney Michael Cord of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Incorporated and Philadelphia Mayor Jim Kenny gave a public address on the importance of Juneteenth and the significance of the location.

The procession of Omegas with boisterous chants and song was preceded by the young brothers of Mu Chapter (UPenn, Villanova and Drexel Universities). The young brothers performing an Omega step show for the some seven thousand spectators along the parade route was an impressive sight to behold for everyone.

The parade ended in front of the African American History Museum at 7th and Arch Streets where Mu Chapter performed again in front of the dignitary bandstand of the PCOL and elected officials. As each group approached they saluted the bandstand with their own traditions.

There was representation from Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc, The National F.O.I. champion drill team from New York, NY, the Local Shriners and Masons and a host of proud Black organizations.

Xi Phi Chapter Supports “Find Our Girls Rally”

Harlem, New York. March 2017. Brother Ed Murray of Xi Phi Chapter participated on the Black Lives Matter of Greater NYC | Find Our Girls March on Sunday, April 9, 2017. The march called for fraternities, sororities, faith based organizations and activists across NYC to march in solidarity to raise awareness for the 64,000 missing Black women and girls. “The women from our communities will not be forgotten. Xi Phi will always use its influence to be a voice for the voiceless. One missing woman or child from our community is one too many.” Brother Ed Murray. Missing Black women and girls have been significantly under-represented in recent mainstream media. Black women and girls represent a disproportionate percentage of the number of missing people; representing over 35% of missing persons cases.

An alarming 501 cases of missing children has been reported in the nation’s capital with the majority of the missing being Black and Latino. The Harlem community and Black Lives Matter of Greater New York demand a thorough investigation of the reported cases and nothing less than what our counterparts receive.

Washington, D.C. May 26, 2017. On May 26, 2017, the brothers of Pi Omega were asked to perform a Judo demonstration for Marie Reed Dual Language Elementary School for their Asian/Pacific Heritage Month presentation. Marie Reed Dual Language Elementary School, located 4400 Iowa Ave NW Washington, DC is a diverse, multi-lingual learning community dedicated to nurturing the whole child to develop the values, character, and knowledge to become global citizens. Their focus is on social and emotional growth in addition to academic excellence so that their students have the ability to thrive in any environment. Judo meaning “gentle way” was created as a physical, mental and moral pedagogy in Japan, in 1882, by Jigoro Kano. It is generally categorized as a modern martial art which later evolved into a combat and Olympic sport. Its most prominent feature is its competitive element, where the objective is to either throw or takedown an opponent to the ground, immobilize or otherwise subdue an opponent with a pin, or force an opponent to submit with a joint lock or a choke. Strikes and thrusts by hands and feet as well as weapons defenses are a part of judo, but only in pre-arranged forms and are not allowed in judo competition or free practice. May is Asian/Pacific American Heritage Month – a celebration of Asians and Pacific Islanders in the United States. A rather broad term, Asian/Pacific encompasses all of the Asian continent and the Pacific islands of Melanesia (New Guinea, New Caledonia, Vanuatu, Fiji and the Solomon Islands), Micronesia (Marianas, Guam, Wake Island, Palau, Marshall Islands, Kiribati, Nauru and the Federated States of Micronesia) and Polynesia (New Zealand, Hawaiian Islands, Rotuma, Midway Islands, Samoa, American Samoa, Tonga, Tuvalu, Cook Islands, French Polynesia and Easter Island).

Memorial Day has become the traditional kick-off of summer but the holiday has a much more significant purpose. Memorial Day is observed on the last Monday of May. Memorial Day commemorates the men and women who died while serving in the military.

The purpose of Memorial Day is sometimes confused with Veterans Day. According to the Department of Veterans Affairs, Veterans Day is commemorated on November 11th of every year and honors all those who have served in the U.S. military during times of war and peace. Armed Forces Day, which falls on May 20 each year, recognizes those who are currently serving in the military.

Members Versus Men Revisited

Brother Qasim Rashad, 2nd District NAACP/CEF Chair

Brothers lets reread and recommit to what Bro. Walter Mazyck wrote in the Oracle in 1925 in its entirety. We should take the spirit of what he was driving to heart. Even then the challenges of men taking their oath to Omega seriously was a foreseeable issue. No one is saying our brothers who pledged as we all have are not brothers.

But brother Mazyck addressed members in real brotherhood. Not bucket list members who only show love and support one dimensionally. It's more to Omega than being a "good bruh". It's a commitment to all four cardinal principles, which include uplifting our fellow man and community. If we only see you at the "setowt" that's cool. But "friendship" as our motto is something you must demonstrate prior to pledging. Because we accept friends for who they are and at the level they participate. But we accept friends for who they are and at the level they participate. But a good brother is not always a good member. And that is the essence of what Bro. Mazyck was driving. "If any chapter has reached the maximum in numbers for efficient work and brotherly cooperation..." Then stop making members.

Brothers lets stop conflating what is a good "member". It's comprehensive participation from the barbeque grill to the block captain meeting. Exhibiting Manhood, Scholarship Perseverance, and Uplift in your family, your houses of worship and your communities. Not who's Cat versus who's Owt". Don't for a second think because you demonstrate a character trait we refer to as "owt" while you have no good work or pay no dues you're better than other Omegas. Would you go to work and say, "I'm going do the accounting but not record it?" Or tell your wife, "I'll mow the lawn but not take out the trash?" You can't be half an employee or half a husband then claim you're complete.

And what does your boss or wife do when they've had enough? You can't pledge hard then not do work and claim you're a whole brother. Just like you can't pursue your wife or the job you always wanted and then kick back once you got them.

We need to stop this, "I pledged right and I don't owe the frat anything but I am entitled to all the privileges and benefits there in" mindset.

Where on Earth do they do this? Omega is not a country club. But if it were you'd have annual dues and responsibilities as a part of membership! If you haven't paid your dues or volunteered your service you ain't a good member of this Fraternity. That doesn't make you a terrible brother if you still exemplify the cards. That just means you're a good Bruh and maybe a good friend. But a good member you are not because a good member is all encompassing. And that not only includes your character but your dues and service. So please stop meshing "good brother" with good "member". There are many who are both and many who are one or the other and as we know many more who don't measure up to either. #8>80 Long live the legacy of Bro. Walter Mazyck!

Love is Stronger Than Hate

Brother Rev. Terris King, Sr.

Marriages are supposedly made in heaven. Our partnership was something only God could have brought together: an African-American Baptist Pastor from the Liberty Grace Church in Baltimore's Ashburton neighborhood, and a White Orthodox Jewish Rabbi from Pikesville in Baltimore County, but together we are one as God's children and advocates.

When we met, we saw each other spiritually and knew we could help each other grow as faith leaders and as human beings. Since our first meeting a year ago, we have addressed each other's congregations, and we are working together as one to help heal, empower and sensitize our communities to our common interest and values. Most recently, we have shared our pain and agony over the shameless loss of Heather Heyer in Charlottesville, Va., which was heightened by the remarks of our country's president.

In the aftermath of Charlottesville, Jewish citizens and African Americans once again are facing the common bond of bigotry. The timing could not be better to build a stronger bridge between the leaders, congregations and communities of our two groups.

We must unite our voices to proclaim that love is stronger than hate and use this moment as an opportunity to come together. Intolerance to racism and bigotry should be a common tenet for any religious community. Baltimore is our city regardless of which side of Northern Parkway you live on while traveling on Park Heights. The differences between Randallstown and Pikesville should not stop us from focusing on common goals.

The relationship between us may serve as a model for what the city and nation desperately need collaboration and hope.

It has been said that one is either part of the solution or part of the problem. Sadly, tragically, we have learned from Charlottesville that our president is part of the problem. It is the responsibility of all of us to be part of the solution. We applaud our governor and mayor for having the courage to be part of the solution in removing the symbols of oppression that divide us. Now it's up to the rest of us.

The two of us have learned from each other how much we share in common, most especially the moral clarity expressed by the prophet Micah: "Have we not all one father? Hath not one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?"

Four Quadrants of Omega Participation

Brother Dr. Garry M. Keel

For all Omega men, the number four has special meaning. Four Founders, Four Cardinal Principles, Four knocks on the door, five times Four pearls, Four Candles, etc. The chart below further symbolizes the significance of the number Four. The Four quadrants of Omega Participation is an easy to use chart that identifies what I think are the four different ways in which Brothers are engaged with the Fraternity. Brothers are not necessarily permanently relegated to any particular quadrant; but rather a Brother can and often does move between particular quadrants as their life evolves and matures. Not only does the chart provide an individual Brother with some honest introspection, it can also assist the Chapter's Reclamation and Retention committees to implement specific programs and strategies to assist Brothers in each respective quadrant to stay engaged and/or to become re-engaged with Omega.

*Brother Dr. Garry M. Keel, Former Basileus
Delta Upsilon Chapter*

FA (Financial and Active)

A Brother in this quadrant is someone who is thoroughly immersed in the true Omega spirit. He attends meetings, sits on and chairs committees, pays yearly dues, participates in most of the chapter events/activities. He is typically engaged and sees his participation in Omega to be both an opportunity to serve others and also embraces the true value of having a true Friend.

FI (Financial and Inactive)

A Brother in this quadrant stays in the background, wishing to do little work for the Fraternity but will buy a ticket and regularly attends/shows up at Fraternity sponsored events and meetings. He is easily recognizable at Fraternity events but rarely offers any support or assistance to see that the event/program is a success.

NA (Non-Financial and Active)

A Brother in this quadrant is typically someone who works for and is involved in Fraternity activities but because of personal financial limitations is unable to pay dues or attend paid events. This Brother can be counted on to provide sweat equity to ensure that the Fraternity program/event is successful. This Brother rarely holds any official leadership position within the chapter but may be sought out for advice and support.

NI (Non-financial and Inactive)

This Brother no longer sees the Fraternity as an integral and/or relevant part of their life. He could care less as to what is happening with the Fraternity. He rarely, if ever lets anyone know that he is a member of the Fraternity nor does he show up at Fraternity events. His only interaction with the Fraternity is on the occasion when he may find himself in the company of other Brothers in a public place.

The True Gentleman

The True Gentleman is the man whose conduct proceeds from good will and an acute sense of propriety, and whose self-control is equal to all emergencies; who does not make the poor man conscious of his poverty, obscure man of his obscurity, or any man of his inferiority or deformity; who is himself humbled if necessity compels him to humble another; who does not flatter wealth, cringe before power, or boast of his own possessions or achievements; who speaks with frankness but always with sincerity and sympathy; whose deed follows his word; who thinks of the rights and feelings of others, rather than his own; and who appears well in any company, a man with whom honor is sacred and virtue safe.
